Dear Mr. McAllister:

The Copyright Office Review Board has completed its review of your firm's request for reconsideration of the Office's refusal to register your client's work entitled, "Croc Scissors." The Board reviewed the registration application, deposit and related correspondence and concluded that a registration can be made. The Board found that the work satisfies the minimum creativity standard articulated by the Supreme Court in Feist Publications, Inc. v. Rural Telephone Service Co., 499 U.S. 340 (1991).

The Office will finalize the administrative work needed to complete the registration and issue your client the certificate of registration in due course.

Sincerely,

/s/
