WIPO 'S MANDATE FOR ENFORCEMENT

• Pursuant to the mandate of the WIPO General Assembly in 1994 and 1995 and the WIPO-WTO Agreement, WIPO has carried out extensive activities related to the TRIPS Agreement

• Enforcement of intellectual property rights, as an integral part of the TRIPS Agreement, was incorporated into the WIPO programs since January 1996.
ENFORCEMENT PROCEDURES

- Article 41 of TRIPS Agreement (1996)
- A number the WIPO-administered treaties contain provisions which indirectly require appropriate enforcement measures:
  - Article 25 of Paris Convention (1883)
  - Article 36 of Bern Convention (1886)
  - Article 26 of Rome Convention (1961)

Article 25 of Paris Convention

- [Implementation of the Convention on the Domestic Level]
- (1) Any country party to this Convention undertakes to adopt, in accordance with its constitution, the measures necessary to ensure the application of this Convention.
- (2) It is understood that, at the time a country deposits its instrument of ratification or accession, it will be in a position under its domestic law to give effect to the provisions of this Convention.
Article 36 of Bern Convention

- [Application of the Convention: 1. Obligation to adopt the necessary measures; 2. Time from which obligation exists]
- (1) Any country party to this Convention undertakes to adopt, in accordance with its constitution, the measures necessary to ensure the application of this Convention.
- (2) It is understood that, at the time a country becomes bound by this Convention, it will be in a position under its domestic law to give effect to the provisions of this Convention.

ENFORCEMENT PROVISIONS OF WIPO TREATIES

- Copyright and Related Rights
  Bern Convention:
  - Article 15: Rights to institute infringement proceedings to enforce protected rights
  - Articles 13(3) and 16: Seizure of infringing copies
  WCT: Article 14
  WPPT: Article 23

Article 15 of Bern Convention

- [Right to Enforce Protected Rights: 1. Where author's name is indicated or where pseudonym leaves no doubt as to author's identity; 2. In the case of cinematographic works; 3. In the case of anonymous and pseudonymous works; 4. In the case of certain unpublished works of unknown authorship]

- (1) In order that the author of a literary or artistic work protected by this Convention shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be regarded as such, and consequently be entitled to institute infringement proceedings in the countries of the Union, it shall be sufficient for his name to appear on the work in the usual manner. This paragraph shall be applicable even if this name is a pseudonym, where the pseudonym adopted by the author leaves no doubt as to his identity.
(2) The person or body corporate whose name appears on a cinematographic work in the usual manner shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be presumed to be the maker of the said work.

(3) In the case of anonymous and pseudonymous works, other than those referred to in paragraph (1) above, the publisher whose name appears on the work shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed to represent the author, and in this capacity he shall be entitled to protect and enforce the author's rights. The provisions of this paragraph shall cease to apply when the author reveals his identity and establishes his claim to authorship of the work.

(4) (a) In the case of unpublished works where the identity of the author is unknown, but where there is every ground to presume that he is a national of a country of the Union, it shall be a matter for legislation in that country to designate the competent authority which shall represent the author and shall be entitled to protect and enforce his rights in the countries of the Union.

(b) Countries of the Union which make such designation under the terms of this provision shall notify the Director General by means of a written declaration giving full information concerning the authority thus designated. The Director General shall at once communicate this declaration to all other countries of the Union.
Article 13 (3) of Bern Convention

- [Possible Limitation of the Right of Recording of Musical Works and Any Words Pertaining Thereto: 1. Compulsory licenses; 2. Transitory measures; 3. Seizure on importation of copies made without the author's permission]

- (3) Recordings made in accordance with paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article and imported without permission from the parties concerned into a country where they are treated as infringing recordings shall be liable to seizure.

13.03.02  LJ ASPAC BUREAU

Article 16 of Bern Convention

- [Infringing Copies: 1. Seizure; 2. Seizure on importation; 3. Applicable law]

- (1) Infringing copies of a work shall be liable to seizure in any country of the Union where the work enjoys legal protection.

- (2) The provisions of the preceding paragraph shall also apply to reproductions coming from a country where the work is not protected, or has ceased to be protected.

- (3) The seizure shall take place in accordance with the legislation of each country.

13.03.02
RE-ENFORCING IPR
ENFORCEMENT SUPPORT

- Development Cooperation Program
- Development of Industrial Property Law - Protection of Industrial Property Rights
- Development of CR & Related Rights
- E-commerce and IP

MEETINGS OF ADVISORY COMMITTEES

- Two sessions on industrial property October 2000 and December 2001
- Three sessions on copyright December 1998, December 1999 and December 2001
ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON ENFORCEMENT OF INDUSTRIAL PROPERTY RIGHTS (ACE/IP)

Objective of the ACE/IP:
• Monitor all activities in international IP law
• Prepare studies and proposals for improvement
• Consider the most appropriate approach to their adoption and implementation

First Session: Geneva, October 19 and 20, 2000
Second Session: December 18 to 20, 2001

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON MANAGEMENT AND ENFORCEMENT OF COPYRIGHT AND RELATED RIGHTS IN GLOBAL INFORMATION NETWORKS (ACMEC)

• Renamed from Advisory Committee on Management of Copyright and Related Rights in Global Information Networks (ACMC), which had to two sessions (1998, 1999)
• Third session of ACMEC jointly convened with ACE/IP in 2001
ACMEC Activity indicated in 2000-2001 Program and Budget

- to discuss the issues of the exercise, management and enforcement of rights in the digital environment, particularly in global networks, including the practical application of technological measures of protection, rights management information systems and new methods for management of rights

13.03.02    LJ ASPAC BUREAU

JOINT MEETING OF ACE/IP AND ACMEC

- Held from December 18 to 20, 2001
- Unanimously agreed
  - enforcement of intellectual property rights was of great importance to all countries
  - WIPO was in a particularly appropriate position: to gather information on enforcement of IPRs to coordinate activities undertaken by the Committees jointly with various IGOs and NGOs aiming at establishing adequate and effective enforcement systems

Further Actions Required at the Joint Committees

- to establish an Electronic Forum to facilitate the exchange of information relating to enforcement issues
- identify the existing needs for training and for development of enforcement strategies
- continue and intensify WIPO activities in favor of developing countries and countries in transition, in particular the activities of the WIPO Worldwide Academy and of the regional bureaus, with regard to training, technical assistance and awareness building in the field of enforcement
- preparation of model enforcement provisions and practices, including Internet enforcement issues, for Sept. 2002

WORK OF WIPO REGIONAL BUREAUS ON ENFORCEMENT

- One of the documents discussed at the ACE/IP First Session is “WIPO’s Legal and Technical Assistance to Developing Countries for the Implementation of the TRIPS Agreement from January 1, 1996 to June 30, 2000” (document WIPO/TRIPS/2000/1), which described the work in the area of enforcement undertaken by the WIPO Regional Bureaus and the Intellectual Property Law Department of the Sector of Cooperation for Development. WIPO has, since 1996, incorporated into its ongoing cooperation for development programs various activities regarding the enforcement of intellectual property rights.
WIPO's Response to the Impact of Digital Technology

- WCT and WPPT
- WIPO Digital Agenda
- WIPO Internet Domain Name Process
- WIPO Online Dispute Resolution Mechanism
- WIPO Arbitration and Mediation Center

WIPO ARBITRATION AND MEDIATION CENTER

- Established in 1994 to provide arbitration and mediation services for the resolution of commercial disputes between private parties involving IP, as alternative to court litigation
- Center is international, independent and neutral and assisted in its operation by advisory bodies composed of external experts in international dispute resolution and IP
ACTIVITIES OF CENTER

• Mediation
• Arbitration
• Mediation followed by arbitration
• Expedited arbitration
• On-line dispute resolution
• Domain names dispute resolution
OBJECTIVES

- To assist Member States in identifying needs and possible solutions concerning the enforcement of all intellectual property rights
- To contribute toward increased communication and networking between Member States and between intellectual property agencies and enforcement agencies in each Member State

13.03.02

EXPECTED RESULTS

- Greater recognition and awareness among Member States and other concerned parties of the importance of appropriate measures to protect and enforce intellectual property rights, and of identifying less burdensome, cost-effective procedures for enforcement
- Improved communication and cooperation among Member States, and among intellectual property and enforcement agencies within Member States

13.03.02
ACTIVITIES

- Executing the directives of the former Advisory Committee on Enforcement of Industrial Property Rights in the broader context of all intellectual property rights
- Preparation of additional studies and surveys
- Cooperation and share expertise with others
- Promoting understanding of the international principles
- Contribution to preparing a Guide

Executing the directives of the former Advisory Committee on Enforcement of Industrial Property Rights in the broader context of all intellectual property rights, including, inter alia, assisting the Member States in:
- identifying the challenges in enforcement of intellectual property in all Member States;
- identifying best practices for enforcement of intellectual property in Member States, including practices that are effective, while being at the same time less costly and time-consuming;
- identifying existing requirements and needs for training and development of enforcement strategies for intellectual property in Member States;
- identifying external resources for training and cooperation in enforcement of intellectual property, such as private sector resources and other multilateral and regional organizations; and
- identifying additional issues and/or initiating additional activities as the need arises and available resources allow.
Preparation of additional studies and surveys on important issues relating to the enforcement of intellectual property rights, where appropriate with the help of consultants.

- Cooperation and coordination with multilateral and regional organizations in order to share expertise and experiences, as appropriate.
- Promotion of the understanding of the international principles relating to the enforcement of intellectual property rights, including correspondence, attendance at seminars, advising national governments, preparation and provision of advice concerning WIPO documents and publications, and following the activities of the WTO.

"SEEING THE UNPRECEDENTED WEALTH OF NEW TECHNOLOGY ENTERING THE MARKETPLACE TODAY, WE HAVE EVERY REASON TO BELIEVE THAT INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND THE ASSURANCE OF THEIR ENFORCEABILITY HAVE NEVER BEEN MORE IMPORTANT."
